RENZIED AUDIENCE DEFIES POLICE; REFUSES ROOM FOR FAINTING WOMEN TO BE TAKEN OUT

A noisy, pushing mob, which resisted every effort of house employees and the police to disperse at 7:15 o'clock, a packed house, such that it was impossible for one more person to enter at 8 o'clock, and two fainting women, who were unable to get out of the house at 8:30 o'clock, marked the opening had been held, comparatively only a very few had seen the interior of the theater. And this was what caused the mad rush for a standing room—a wild desire to see the Burns.

As early as 7 o'clock the crowd commenced to gather in the lobby of the playhouse, and by 7:30 it almost packed the space. At 7:45 o'clock it had taken on the aspect of a mob, and those who held reserved seat tickets were unable to push their way through the doors. The management requested that all who held no tickets wait outside the lobby until time for the doors to be thrown open, but the crowd paid no attention.

The manager called the police, explaining conditions, and asking if something could be done. A squad of patrolmen marched to the theater.

DEFENSE ATTORNEY ATTACKS W. J. BURNS

Charges Detective Trying to Influence Darrow Jury But Later Backs Down

LOS ANGELES, June 6.—Ben H. Franklin testified today, on cross-examination in the trial of Clarence Darrow, for alleged jury bribery, that he had made his first confession of guilt at the office and in the presence of Oscar Lawler, special government prosecutor in the dynamite conspiracy investigation, that he had first been approached with a view to getting him to turn state's evidence, by a deputy United States marshal, and that later he had applied for employment to the Merchants and Manufacturers Association, which took a prominent part in the McNamara prosecution.

At the conclusion of Franklin's cross-examination, late today, members of the defense declared better progress had been made with the case during the day than at any time since Franklin took the stand, 10 days ago. Re-direct examination by Assistant District Attorney Rogers was then begun, and may not be concluded before tomorrow's adjournment.

Franklin was on the stand all day, but his ordeal at the hands of Chief Counsel Rogers, for the defense, was broken several times by verbal controversies between opposing counsel, one of which included a sensational denunciation of William J. Burns by the chief counsel for the defense.

Rogers Makes Charges

In connection with his attack on Burns, Rogers accused the prosecution of attempting to strike at Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and declared that one of the Burns' intimates, who had been in attendance at every session of the trial, had sought to reach the ears of a juror with remarks made while seated in the section occupied by members of the press. The latter charge caused a half hour's recess for the purpose of investigation, at the conclusion of which the detective was exonerated by Rogers in open court.

Rogers' denunciation of Burns grew out of continual objections by the prosecution to the playing of Franklin with questions concerning his negotiations with the district attorney. He had asked the witness if he had not, after making his confession, in which the names of Burns and Gompers were named, been told to bring Gompers name into his testimony whenever the opportunity arose.

The district attorney insisted that Burns had nothing to do with the prosecution, and that no one sought to implicate Gompers in the Darrow trial.

Says But Step Against Gompers

"Burns men are concerned in every detail of this case," retorted Rogers, even to bounding our witnesses and watching our office and disfiguring our places. No man could say that, say that William J. Burns' men, employed by the National Erectors Association, were not behind this case in every particular.

District Attorney Fredericks said that no one had sought to implicate Gompers in the present case, a statement which brought Rogers again to his feet.

"It is a matter of common knowledge," he declared, dramatically, "that the United States in this district, through Oscar Lawler and in other districts, has made a strenuous effort to connect Mr. Gompers and to bring his name in, and it is a matter of common knowledge right from the evidence in this case that the federal grand jury at Indianapolis sent for this check book, came into this court from Indianapolis, where they are investigating these other charges. It is our contention that this prosecution against Darrow is but a step against Gompers. Mr. Burns is announcing everywhere that he is going to get Gompers if he can, through Darrow."

Takes Vigorous Exception

The prosecution took vigorous exception to these intonations.

"If Burns has anything against Mr. Gompers and is following Mr. Gompers, that is his business, not ours," said District Attorney Fredericks. "We have no charges to prefer here against Mr. Gompers in any way, shape or

TWO CONVICTS ESCAPE FROM THE ROAD GANG

One Arrested Here by Police as a Common Tramp, Politely Says "Pardon Me" to Officer and Makes Getaway

Two convicts escaped from the road gang, at work 12 miles north of here, at about 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. At least one of them is supposed to be in hiding in the hills west of this city. Closely pressed by officers of the penitentiary, who are on his trail, it is thought that he was out in the open all last night.

The men are James McAdams, 29, serving a sentence of from eight to 10 years, sent up from Prowers county, and John Morgan, 19, sentenced to serve from two to three years, from Chaffee county. Both were khaki trousers and black coats when they escaped, and had on heavy prison shoes.

McAdams is an American and Morgan is a German-American.

It is practically certain that a "tramp" who was arrested by Officer A. E. Rogers of the local police force on Colorado avenue yesterday afternoon, was McAdams. The man escaped from Reery and fled west across the railway tracks.

Mrs. Elva L. Strong, of 1119 West Jackson avenue, telephoned the police about 2:55 yesterday afternoon that a tramp had become very abusive when she refused to give him food. Officer Reery was sent to the house at once, in a motorcade, and upon the description furnished by Mrs. Strong, arrested the man on Colorado avenue.

Thinking him an ordinary vag, the officer took him to the Strong residence, where Mrs. Strong identified him. While Reery was talking to her about appearing against him, the "tramp" seized an opportune moment and made good his escape. "Pardon

THOUSANDS OF ACRES IN ARIZONA FLOODED

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., June 6.—Thousands of acres of land on the Arizona side of the Colorado river, across from old Fort Mojave, are under water as a result of the river's overflowing and then bursting through the Cotton Land company levee today. Lincolnville, just below Fort Mojave, has been practically depopulated, the people fleeing to higher ground for safety.

The river fell three feet at Needles as a result of the levee break, but flood crest is due to reach there June 9 and desperate efforts are being made to save the town.

DISASTROUS FOREST FIRES

WINNIPEG, June 6.—Disastrous forest fires now raging have swept the country for a distance of 110 miles between Fort George and Tate Juane Cache, on the upper Fraser river.

GIRLS ACCEPT INVITATION AND TAKE RIDE IN PATROL

Three tourists from Chicago, two young women and a man, took a ride yesterday which is not on the usual list of attractions visited by tourists.

Driver K. L. Barber of the police force was returning from a patrol wagon call on the west side without the passenger he expected, and overlooking the fact, he was about to call "Carriage, ladies!" He was considerably surprised when one of the young ladies promptly accepted his offer. Not to be outdone in generosity he stopped the wagon and the three climbed in. The ladies declared they enjoyed the trip very much, and were anxious to make another.

"Well, we came out west to take in everything, and I'm glad we didn't miss this trip," one of them said, as they left the wagon just before reaching Colorado avenue.

HEAT WAVE AND FLOOD NEAR GRAND JUNCTION

GRAND JUNCTION, June 6.—A record temperature of 94 degrees in the shade in this vicinity today was accompanied by a rise of water in the Grand river six inches above any mark known in the last 20 years. As a result, damage is threatened at many places along the river in Grand valley.

At Rifle the river is trying to cut a channel around the ends of two state bridges. A large force of men is working to save the structures. The electric light plants at Rifle have been flooded and the city is in darkness tonight. Fifty feet of water pipe by which the city is supplied with water, was washed out.

At Grand Valley, the Revere and Cramer railroads have men at work ripping up the roadbeds to keep them solid.

SEVEN-YEAR-OLD BOY KILLS YOUNGER SISTER

FURBER, June 6.—Emulating a character in a moving picture drama, Raymond Ficker, 7 years old, tonight shot and killed his 5-year-old sister, Mary, with a bullet from an old revolver which his father forgot was loaded.

TAFT MEN CLAIM TO HAVE WON VICTORY

Thinks Vote on Publicity Question Shows Strength of Opposing Camps

CHICAGO, June 6.—Taft and Roosevelt members of the Republican national committee hurried to downtown hotel headquarters at the conclusion of the first formal meeting of the committee, this afternoon, and tonight went into conference with campaign managers to decide plans for the contest hearings before the committee tomorrow morning.

Taft leaders said that the single recorded vote taken in today's committee meeting, that on admission of press reporters, disclosed the lineup between Taft and Roosevelt adherents.

The Roosevelt managers, however, insisted that the vote was without significance or value in attempting to measure the relative strengths of the opposing camps.

The Taft managers said a canvass of all contests showed that in a majority of cases to be brought before the committee, the Roosevelt camps were without merit, and, therefore, President Taft would be assured of a vast two-thirds of the contested seats in the convention.

McKinley Claims Majority

Many of the two statements issued tonight by Congressman William McKinley, head of the Taft forces, the following appear.

Of the 43 states and territories and districts represented in the Republican national convention this year, President Taft has the entire delegations of a majority of the delegations from 20 states in the north and west, 10 from the south and five from the District of Columbia, and territories or a total of 51. Mr. Roosevelt has the delegations of the majority of them from 13 states in the north and west, and two from the south, or a total of 18. Senator Robert M. La Follette has two Wisconsin and North Dakota votes.

Furthermore, President Taft has representation by delegations from seven of the states which Mr. Roosevelt has carried in this contest, increasing the number of political units represented by his total of delegates to 42 out of 55 in the convention.

In the face of this analysis of the delegations by states, as they have been carried in the Chicago convention, the utter absurdity of the claims of Mr. Roosevelt and his managers, that they control the convention, is apparent. They will have, in fact, no say in the matter of nominating the president, since Roosevelt's delegates will already realize that they are bound into a ditch if not into an actual bolt, by a last campaign.

Victory for Roosevelt

United States Senator from Nebraska, Mr. Howard, in voting for sessions open to the press, said that the decision was a victory for Roosevelt.

Mr. Howard of Nebraska chosen for national committeeman at the state primaries, issued a statement after conferring with Senator Dixon.

"Mr. Howard's statement follows:

"Mr. Roosevelt will retain his seat in the national committee for the present without contest. I have been advised by Senator Dixon to defer the presentation of my credentials."

While I now am legally entitled, without question to perform the functions of national committeeman from Nebraska, I shall attempt to assume the duties of that office only when the duties of Colonel Roosevelt's campaign so demands."

The Roosevelt and Howard contest was expected before the committee met, would develop the first test of strength. Certain Taft adherents said the Roosevelt managers were unwilling to take the initiative in asking for a roll call on any such clearly defined issues at this time.

PUBLICITY IN HEARING OF CONTESTS

Republican National Committee Reaches Decision Without Opposition

ACTUAL WORK BEGINS TODAY

Cases Will Be Taken Up in Alphabetical Order, Beginning With Alabama

CHICAGO, June 6.—Publicity will govern the Republican national committee deliberations upon the contested seats in the national convention. This was decided without opposition at the opening session of the committee today, in accordance with the expressed wishes of Colonel Roosevelt and President Taft.

The public and the newspapers will be represented by the five press associations whose reporters are admitted to the floor of the national house of representatives. Two men from each press association will be permitted to be present during all deliberations and decisions of the committee; there will be no executive sessions.

Those declaring emphatically for publicity in all its proceedings, the committee elected Victor Fawcett of Omaha permanent chairman of the committee and adopted the rules of four years ago, which are to govern the contest hearings.

Difference of Opinion

Opinions differ as to the significance of the only vote taken during the meeting which might be construed as a test of strength in the committee as between Taft and Roosevelt adherents. That vote of 23 to 13, was on the question of confining the representation of the newspapers to the press associations.

The Roosevelt people contended for a complete removal of the lid by admitting at least one representative of every newspaper having recognition in the press galleries of congress. This was urged by Congressman Kilgore of Minnesota as a substitute for the recommendation of Congressman Hart of Iowa, but it was defeated on a roll call.

The only other vote of a significant character was on the proposal of Senator Borah that eight members be sufficient to order a roll call. This was defeated and the old rule providing for 20 for this purpose was re-enacted.

To Give Out Daily Report

The Taft adherents did not object to the widest publicity, but argued that the committee did not have facilities for admitting all, and urged that while no part of the committee's sessions should be practically exclusive, stenographic reports should be given to the press.

A plan to give out daily a stenographic report of the proceedings came up through the adoption of a motion by Committeeman Shackelford of Alaska, and this will be done.

One subject which was generally expected to cause friction was scarcely mentioned. That was the expected effort to send the new national committeemen recently chosen by various state primaries and conventions.

The committee adjourned at 3:55 p. m. until 10 a. m. tomorrow, when the

SENATOR FLINN GOES TO CHICAGO FOR T. R.

Will Act as Former President's Representative in Fight Before Committee

OSTER RAY, N. Y., June 6.—State Sen. William Flinn of Pittsburgh, was dispatched post haste to Chicago by Colonel Roosevelt tonight to act as the former president's representative in the fight before the national committee over contested delegates.

This afternoon Flinn reached after a conference at Sagamore Hill tonight in which the situation at Chicago as told to the senator over his private wires was discussed at length.

Senator Flinn starts for Chicago at once, he said. He is going at my request. Senator Dixon will be in charge. Mr. Flinn will assist him.

Colonel Roosevelt did not go into particulars as to the precise nature of Mr. Flinn's work beyond making it clear that the Pennsylvanian was to have an important part in the fight.

"I may go to Chicago at the end of next week. I have not decided yet," said Colonel Roosevelt.

"I regret that all the representatives of newspapers were not admitted to the hearing today," he said, "I am glad that the press associations were admitted, but that is not enough. In many parts of the country, notably in New York, one of our most serious difficulties has been the constant suppression of the news, so that great masses of people have been kept in ignorance of what happened."

"I earnestly hope that the roll call in the national committee on every important point will be made public."

We keep our developing and printing way up above the ordinary—and never have a dissatisfied customer. Bring in your films today—get them tomorrow.

RENZIED AUDIENCE DEFIES POLICE; REFUSES ROOM FOR FAINTING WOMEN TO BE TAKEN OUT

A noisy, pushing mob, which defied every effort of house employees to disperse at 7:15 o'clock, a packed house, such that it was impossible for one more person to enter at 8 o'clock, and two fainting women who were unable to get out of the house at 8:30 o'clock, marked the annual Colorado Springs High school commencement, in the Burns, tonight.

HAVANA, June 6.—The gravity of the situation in Cuba was emphasized by the issuance late tonight by President Gomez of a proclamation to the Cuban people urging them to arm and organize in the face of the national peril. The president expresses the hope that congress tomorrow will vote a credit to cover the extraordinary military preparations—this in addition to the $1,000,000 already voted. He says in part:

"The executive hopes that congress will vote a credit large enough to place on a war footing the forces sufficient to crush rapidly the tempest of frenzied passions which some criminals and their allies in Oriente have unleashed on Cuba."

"I must arm and organize immediately the country for its defense, not only in the exercise of my right but as my duty. Every citizen should vie in being foremost in forming a part of the legion of honor to free the republic from the barbarous attack made on it. To this destructive assault the government will oppose the force of a nation-organized, which will proceed manfully to restore peace for the sake of the salvation of the republic and the honor of the nation."

Military operations in the province of Oriente have been brought to a complete halt, due to the apparent failure of General Montecado's original plan of campaign.

General Montecado now depends upon dividing his forces into smaller units and increasing them by bodies of regular troops, which have been recruited in the province and are familiar with the scene of the operations. This will involve considerable delay.

Need 950 Guards for Planters.

SANTIAGO, Cuba, June 6.—Lieut. Charles Reiknap, acting under orders of Capt. George W. Kline, commandant of the Guantanamo naval station, arrived here today to investigate conditions and report the wishes of American citizens with regard to military protection.

Lieutenant Reiknap had a conference with American Consul Holaday, and many Americans, and made lists of their applications for troops for the protection of property—amounting altogether to 950 soldiers.

The lieutenant said that if the Cuban government was unable to supply these, American marines would be sent. George Collier, the American owner of a ranch at Sigua, near Daiquiri, who was reported to have been held for ransom by the insurgents, has arrived here. He tells an interesting story of the experiences of himself and his partner, Mr. Wheeler, in the insurgent camp. On May 30 four armed negroes arrived on their ranch. They requested horses for the rebels, then camped at Alta Gracia, and when they departed, took six horses with them. Later, a messenger arrived from the rebel headquarters and informed Collier and Wheeler that General Estenoz and Isonet desired to see them.

Rebel General Apologizes.
They went to the rebel camp and General Estenoz made profuse apologies for taking their horses, but said he had been compelled to do so. Estenoz assured them the insurgents would not disturb their ranch, as they were carrying on civil war, he said. He said that the rebels had destroyed property at Daiquiri in order to show the world they were engaged.

DEFENSE ATTORNEY ATTACKS W. J. BURNS

Charges Detective Trying to Influence Darrow Jury But Later Backs Down

LOS ANGELES, June 6.—R. H. Franklin testified today, on cross-examination in the trial of Clarence S. Darrow, for alleged jury bribery, that he had made his first confession of guilt at the office and in the presence of Oscar Lawler, special government prosecutor in the dynamite conspiracy investigation; that he had first been approached with a view to getting him to turn state's evidence, by a deputy United States marshal, and that later he had applied for employment to the Merchants and Manufacturers' association, which took a prominent part in the McNamara prosecution.

At the conclusion of Franklin's cross-examination, late today, members of the defense declared better progress had been made with the case during the day than at any time since Franklin took the stand, 10 days ago. Re-direct examination by Assistant District Attorney Ford was then begun and may not be concluded before tomorrow's adjournment.

Franklin was on the stand all day, but his ordeal at the hands of Chief Counsel Rogers, for the defense, was broken several times by verbal controversies between opposing counsel, one of which included a sensational denunciation of William J. Burns by the chief counsel for the defense.

Rogers Makes Charges.

In connection with his attack on Burns, Rogers accused the prosecution of attempting to strike at Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and declared that one of the Burns detectives, who had been in attendance at every session of the trial, had sought to reach the ears of a juror with remarks made while seated in the section occupied by members of the press. The latter charge caused a half hour's recess for the purpose of investigating at the conclusion of which the defense was exonerated by Rogers in open court.

Rogers' denunciation of Burns grew out of continual objections by the prosecution to the plying of Franklin with questions concerning his negotiations with the district attorney. He had asked the witness if he had not, after making his confession, in which the names of Burns and Gompers were used, been told to bring Gompers home into his testimony whenever the opportunity arose.

The district attorney insisted that Burns had nothing to do with the prosecution, and that no one sought to implicate Gompers in the Darrow trial.

Says But Step Against Gompers.

"Burns' men are concerned in every detail of this case," retorted Rogers, before he launched into a diatribe against the place. No man could truthfully say that William J. Burns' men, employed by the National Erectors' association, were not behind this case in every particular.

District Attorney Frederick said that no one had sought to implicate Gompers in the present case, a statement which brought Rogers again to his feet.

TWO CONVICTS ESCAPE FROM THE ROAD GANG

One Arrested Here by Police as a Common Tramp, Politely Says "Pardon Me" to Officer and Makes Getaway

Two convicts escaped from the road gang at work 12 miles north of here, at about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. At least one of them is supposed to be in hiding in the hills west of this city. Closely pressed by officers of the penitentiary, who were on his trail, it is thought that he was out in the open all last night.

The men are James McAdams, 26, serving a sentence of from eight to 10 years, sent up from Brower county, and John Morgan, 19, sentenced to 10 years from two to three years, from Chaffee county. Both were shaven, thin and black, and when they escaped, had on a heavy prison shirt.

McAdams is an American and Morgan is a German-American.

It is practically certain that a "tramp" who was arrested by Officer A. E. Beery at the local police force, on Colorado avenue, yesterday afternoon, was McAdams. The man escaped from Beery and fled west across the railway tracks.

Mrs. Elva L. Strong of 1119 Washington avenue, telephoned the police about 2:50 yesterday afternoon that a tramp had become very abusive when she refused to give him food. Officer Beery was sent to the house at once, on a motorcycle, and upon the description furnished by Mrs. Strong, arrested the man on Colorado avenue.

Thinking him an ordinary tramp, the officer took him to the Strong residence, where Mrs. Strong identified him. While Beery was talking to her about appearing against him, the "tramp" seized an opportunity and made good his escape. "Pardon me," he said, politely, then dashed around the corner on to Twelfth street, and was out of sight. The officer gave chase on foot, but was unable to catch the fugitive. Thinking him only a common tramp, Beery refrained from shooting.

COLORED REPUBLICANS INDORSE P. B. STEWART

The colored Republicans of Colorado Springs held an enthusiastic meeting at the court house last night and after a general discussion of plans for the coming campaign, unanimously adopted the following resolution endorsing the gubernatorial candidacy of Philip B. Stewart.

Resolved, That Hon. Philip B. Stewart of Colorado Springs has announced his candidacy for governor of the state of Colorado at the coming election; and, Whereas, The said Mr. Stewart's personal record and ability as a business man and citizen is of such nature that makes him the most feasible and competent candidate for the honor of the great state of Colorado; Therefore, Be it resolved that we, the members of the El Paso County Colored Republican club do most cheerfully endorse his candidacy for governor and pledge him our hearty support. (Signed)

MRS. LULU M. DUGGELL, Sec.

THOUSANDS OF ACRES IN ARIZONA FLOODED

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., June 6.—Thousands of acres of land on the Arizona side of the Colorado river, across from old Fort Mojave, are under water as a result of the river's overflowing and then bursting through the Cotton Land company levee today. Lincolnville, just below Fort Mojave, has been practically depopulated, the people fleeing to higher ground for safety.

The river fell three feet at Needles as a result of the levee break, but the flood crest is due to reach there June 9 and desperate efforts are being made to save the town.

DISASTROUS FOREST FIRES

TAFT MEN CLAIM TO HAVE WON VICTORY

Thinks Vote on Publicity Question Shows Strength of Opposing Camps

CHICAGO, June 6.—Taft and Roosevelt members of the Republican national committee hurried to downtown hotel headquarters at the conclusion of the first formal meeting of the committee this afternoon, and tonight went into conference with campaign managers to decide plans for the contest hearings before the committee tomorrow morning.

Taft leaders said that the single recorded vote taken in today's committee meeting, that on admission of press reporters, disclosed the lineup between Taft and Roosevelt adherents.

The Roosevelt managers, however, insisted that the vote was without significance or value in attempting to measure the relative strengths of the opposing camps.

The Taft managers said a canvass of all contests showed that in a majority of cases to be brought before the committee, the Roosevelt contests were without merit, and, therefore, President Taft would be assured of at least two-thirds of the contested seats in the convention.

McKinley Claims Majority.

In one of the two statements issued tonight by Congressman William B. McKinley, head of the Taft force, the following appears:

"Of the 55 states and territories, and districts represented in the Republican national convention this year, President Taft has the entire delegations, or a majority of the delegations, from 20 states in the north and west, 10 from the south and five from the District of Columbia, and territories, or a total of 35. Mr. Roosevelt has the delegations, or the majority of them, from 14 states in the north and west and two from the south, or a total of 16. Senator Robert M. La Follette has two, Wisconsin and North Dakota."

Victory for Roosevelt.

United States Senator Dixon, when told of the committee action in voting for sessions open to the press, said that the decision was a victory for Roosevelt.

R. B. Howell of Nebraska, chosen for national committeeman at the state primaries, issued a statement after conferring with Senator Dixon.

Mr. Roosevelt will retain his seat in the national committee for the present without contest as he has been advised by Senator Dixon to defer the presentation of any credentials.

"While I now am legally entitled, without question, to perform the functions of national committeeman from Nebraska, I shall attempt to assume the duties of that office only when the duties of Colonel Roosevelt's campaign so demands."

PUBLICITY IN HEARING OF CONTESTS

Republican National Committee Reaches Decision Without Opposition

ACTUAL WORK BEGINS TODAY

Cases Will Be Taken Up in Alphabetical Order, Beginning With Alabama.

CHICAGO, June 6.—Publicity will govern the Republican national committee deliberations upon the contested seats in the national convention. This was decided without opposition at the opening session of the committee today, in accordance with the expressed wishes of Colonel Roosevelt and President Taft.

The public and the newspapers will be represented by the five press associations whose reporters are admitted to the floor of the national house of representatives. Two men from each press association will be permitted to be present during all deliberations and decisions of the committee; there will be no executive sessions.

Thus, declaring emphatically for publicity in all its proceedings, the committee elected Victor Rosewater of Omaha permanent chairman of the committee and adopted the rules of four years ago, which are to govern the contest hearings.

Difference of Opinion.

Opinions differ as to the significance of the only vote taken during the meeting which might be construed as a test of strength in the committee as between Taft and Roosevelt adherents.

That vote of 23 to 12, was on the question of confining the representation of the newspapers to the press associations.

The Roosevelt people contended for a complete "removal of the lid" by admitting at least one representative of "every" newspaper having recognition in the press galleries of congress. This was urged by Congressman Kellogg of Minnesota, as a substitute for the recommendation of Congressman Hart of Iowa, but it was defeated on roll call.

The only other vote of a significant character was on the proposal of Senator Borah that eight members be sufficient to order a roll call. This was defeated and the roll call providing for 20 for this purpose was recommended.

To Give Out Daily Report.

The Taft adherents did not object to the widest publicity but argued that the committee did not have facilities for admitting all, and urged that while no part of the committee's sessions should be practically executive, stenographic reports should be given to the press.

A plan to give out daily a stenographic report of the proceedings came up through the adoption of a motion by Committeeman Shackelford of Alaska, and this will be done.

One subject which was generally expected to cause friction was scarcely mentioned. That was the expected effort to seat the new national committeemen recently chosen by various state primaries and conventions.

The committee adjourned at 2:55 p. m. until 10 a. m. tomorrow, when the

AFTER TICKET SCALPERS

CHICAGO, June 6.—Col. Harry S. New, chairman of the subcommittee on arrangements, made it plain last night that he is prepared to deal harshly with ticket scalpers should any attempt be made by them to procure tickets for speculation purposes to the Republican national convention.
"If professional ticket scalpers attempt to sell tickets to the convention it will have them in custody as soon as I hear of it."
Colonel New branded as "rubbish" a rumor that 600 seats had been arranged for outside of the number originally announced. He said the report was so absurd that it was not worth answering.
Two boxes of tickets which arrived from the department of justice in a vault last night to remain there until 48 hours before the convention.

CASAS GRANDES IS SCENE OF FIGHTING

JUARRES, Mex., June 6.—Fighting has broken near Casas Grandes, on the Mexico-Northwestern, between 250 rebels under Colonel Gamboa and Captain Escanbano and a detachment of federalists recruited in Sonora, said to be commanded by Gen. Jose de la Luz Blanco. No details had reached here at 6 o'clock tonight.

Orocco Protests to Congress.

CHIHUAHUA, Mex., June 6.—Gen. Pascual Orocco today wrote a formal protest to the Mexican congress against the holding of elections on June 18 throughout the republic for deputies and senators to the national congress. The rebel chief declared that the country was up in arms against the government and many of the men in the field therefore could not vote. The significance of the move lies in the fact that General Orocco thereby practically recognizes the Mexican congress and is thought to be in line with a peace proposal reported to have originated in congress suggesting that if Orocco recognized congress, that body would in turn recognize him.
Gen. J. J. Canpon was sent southwest today with 1,000 men to reinforce the detachments moving in opposition to General Villa and Rabago, who with federal cavalry are heading overland toward Chihuahua from Parral.

Last of Creel Family to Juarez.

A special car attached to the north-bound train from here today carried to Juarez the last members of the family of Enrique C. Creel, once ambassador to the United States from Mexico and now living in Mexico City.

His brother, John Creel, is in El Paso. Col. Pascual Orocco, Sr., father of the rebel leader, accompanied the train to the border to guarantee safe conduct. The Creels are non grata with the revolutionists because of their wealth.

It was announced today that the home of William Kraft, an American citizen, now at Santa Barbara, Cal., was forcibly entered and searched two days ago because it was believed that ammunition was concealed there. Rebel officials claim they took many guns and cartridges from the house. The search, however, was not authorized by General Orocco, who vented his displeasure today on Chief of Police Trejo, who conducted the search, by sending him to Bachimba to do military duty.

Capture Federal Rifles.

EL PASO, Tex., June 6.—Thirty-five rifles were captured yesterday by rebel troops in a skirmish with federalists on the Mexican side of the river opposite Sierra Blanca, Tex., according to information given out in Juarez today. The rebels say they killed several of the federalists and cut a wire cable which the federalists strung across the river for the transportation of supplies and arms from Texas to Mexico.

GOMEZ URGES

In a revolution he denied he was fighting against the foreigners. The rebel leader said that he would allow none of his men to commit an outrage, and promised that all guilty of such acts would be punished.
General Montezuma has dispatched 100 men to protect El Colera mines. Laborers barricading the water works at Bahua Sotillo were attacked today by rebels and forced to abandon the works. Troops have been sent to protect that town.
Government forces had an engagement today with insurgents near Guanajuato, killing seven. None of the rebels were injured.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—For the present, at least, the four battleships comprising the fourth division of the Atlantic fleet, which are due to arrive in Guantanamo bay tomorrow, will constitute all the United States naval force to be assembled in Cuban waters. The state department today signified its satisfaction with that part of the naval program.
Secretary Knox today told Representative Suizer, chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs, that no one at this moment could forecast the outcome of the insurrection, and it was felt that some time must elapse before its strength could be developed.
The intention is to keep the third division of the fleet at Key West, as there may be adequate force within five hours' sail of Havana.
This precaution is deemed essential, not that the state department has any information that an outbreak is impending at Havana, but there is doubt as to the state of mind of the laborers in Cuba. The extent to which politics may enter into the situation is also problematical. With the weapons at ready in the possession of the Cuban

CLERK GIVES AN UNBIASED OPINION

Takes Public Statement of Facts in Relation to Results Obtained.
A. S. BRUNER IS AN INDORESE
His Personal Experience of Interest to Local Citizens.

When seen recently, Mr. A. S. Bruner, a very prominent hotel clerk who resides at No. 214 East Dale Street, spoke interestingly regarding his experience with the new tonic, "Tona Vita," now being introduced in Colorado Springs by specialists sent here for their service.

Mr. Bruner said: "After using about two-thirds of a bottle of 'Tona Vita,' I feel a remarkable change in my condition. I suffered with blood, stomach and nerve disorders and was generally run down. I now feel as though these troubles are entirely eliminated and can certainly recommend 'Tona Vita' to anyone in this condition."
"Mr. Bruner's trouble was pure and simple nervous debility, which is likely to be found existing in any Colorado Springs family," said one of the specialists, this morning. "Half of the people of Colorado Springs find life a burden and have little real happiness as a result of this modern plague," continued he.

"Such people, and there are lots of them, have uncertain appetites, poor digestion, uneasy sleep, little ambition, and they feel too tired for the simplest work most of the time. They suffer with timidity, have no initiative, are drooping and haven't enough good, rich blood in their veins to make them capable or self-reliant. Their nerves are strung to such a high tension that they imagine themselves afflicted with various diseases at various times. The real trouble with them is debility, produced by the strain of the modern life they are forced to lead. There is little of this ailment among the people of the country as their life of freedom permits them to observe nature's limitations."

"Tona Vita" will positively remove this miserable condition. If it fails to give satisfactory results, it costs nothing, as the medicine must do the work, or we don't want money for it."

Enthusiasm continues to prevail generally where the new product called "Tona Vita" has been used. The great amount of good which seems to have been accomplished is the cause of considerable comment by those who have seen its wonderful work. Case after case of persons who were comparatively nervous wrecks and had been suffering from stomach trouble for years has been reported, and the results of "Tona Vita" are said to have been astonishing in nearly every instance.
The specialists who are here introducing "Tona Vita" are giving demonstrations of what the preparation will do. All day long they meet callers at the Robinson Drug Company, from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m.

MAJORITY FAVOR STRIKE

CHICAGO, June 6.—Referendum votes by union of nine crafts of shopmen employed on railroads running west of Chicago, show a majority for a sympathetic strike to aid the cause of the strikers on the Harriman lines. It was made known here tonight.

CHINESE PREMIER
ATTACKED BY CRANK
Premier Tang Shao Yi of China, who is being congratulated on his lucky escape from the attack of a disgruntled office seeker, who shot at the premier while the latter was dining with President Yuan Shi Kai several days ago. The crank entered the dining hall and aimed several shots at the premier, but luckily all of them went wild. The assailant was overpowered and is now being held awaiting punishment for his crime, which will probably be execution.

BE PRESENTED FIRST

WASHINGTON, June 6.—President Taft's name may not be the first to be presented at the national convention (Chicago) and in fact Taft leaders still in Washington said tonight that the president's name might not be put before the convention until after Roosevelt had been put in nomination.
It became known that C. D. Hilles, president Taft's secretary, carried with him to Chicago a draft of a tentative plan for the presentation of the president's name to the convention. That plan was developed in the subject of alteration by Taft leaders now in Chicago and by Mr. Taft himself.

PUBLICITY IN HEARING

contests will be taken up in alphabetical order, beginning with Alabama.

30 and 15 Minutes a Side.
The old rules, giving 30 minutes to each side in contests over delegations at-large and 15 minutes a side in district contests, were readopted. With 235 contests pending, it is plain that the committee will need every available hour until the convention meets June 18.

Except for the preliminary organization and adoption of the rules which governed the contests four years ago, the committee transacted little business. The report of the special committee appointed at Washington last December proposing general rules to govern the committee was received but action was deferred.

On resolution of Harry S. New of Indiana, the basis of representation in the convention was continued as at present.

Designed to Prevent a Bolt.

Fred W. Upham, who will have a seat in the Republican national convention as a delegate from the ninth Illinois district, plans to introduce a resolution at the opening of the convention designed to prevent a bolt on the part of either side.
It will pledge every delegate to support the nominee of the convention and will call upon the committee of credentials to deny a seat to any delegate who will not make such a pledge.

Precedent for such a resolution is said to be found in the convention of 1880, when the anti-third termers talked of bolting if Grant were nominated.

It was learned tonight that the southern representation question was disposed of by a unanimous vote of the national committee, recommending to the convention that the present plan of delegate representation be allowed to stand.

Discuss Means to Keep American Farmers in U. S.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 6.—How to check the movement of American farmers to Canada and divert them to the northwestern states was a topic that interested delegates attending the Northwest Development congress today. Most of the speakers blamed the method of administering public lands for retarding development in the northwest.

MONEY FROM CANAL BONDS IS USED UP

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The entire proceeds of the Panama canal bonds of 1901 issued less than a year ago have been spent. The last of the loan was wiped out today by the progress of the waterway. Officials of the treasury do not contemplate issuing any more canal bonds during this administration.

DENVER WOMAN SUCCEEDS IN BREAKING A WILL

FORT WORTH, Tex., June 6.—After being out only 45 minutes, the jury in the State case late yesterday afternoon, awarded the verdict to Mrs. Georgia Townsend of Denver, who sued to break the will of her father, who left an estate of $4,000,000 to his widow and 10-year-old son.
The trial had been one of the most startling civil suits ever tried in Texas, involving millionaires and society leaders, and in which cruel treatment by a stepmother of her stepdaughter was alleged.
The jury's decision gives Mrs. Townsend $1,000,000 outright. The widow is allowed to retain $2,000,000 and the son gets $1,000,000. The defense expects to file a motion for a new trial, and if overruled, will take the case to the higher state court.
Mrs. Townsend when apprised of the result, said:
"Thank God, the girl is safe."
Mrs. Scott was at home and she declined to talk or see any one.

DENVER, June 6.—John R. Townsend, husband of Mrs. Georgia Townsend, is a member of the Spratlan-Anderson Mercantile company, and wealthy in his own right. His father was rated as a millionaire in St. Joseph, Mo., where the family name has been well known for more than a century.

DENIAL FROM HUGHES

WASHINGTON, June 6.—In a local newspaper Gerald Hughes of Denver is quoted as saying:
"Under no condition will I permit my name to be presented as a candidate for the United States senate. I do not want to be regarded as a participant in this matter, but under the circumstances I do not think that I should become a candidate. When the senatorship was suggested to me shortly after my father's death, I declined the support of my friends because I did not consider I could accept their support, as it would appear that it was largely out of sentiment it was tendered."
"There will be several candidates for the place, and while there is no artificial barrier to my name, I would not make could I feel that I could win this honor. The struggle will be a bitter one, no doubt, and I am content to leave it to those who are ambitious. It is, of course, very gratifying to have the support of one's friends, but I shall not, as I have said, under any circumstances be a candidate."

GIRLS ATTACK ALLEGED SPY

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 6.—Before the trial of the Magon brothers and their codefendants for violation of American neutrality was resumed today in the United States district court, a stepdaughter of Ricardo Flores Magón, editor of the Mexican revolutionary paper Regeneracion and a defendant with the Magons, Miss Lucile Guidera, stepdaughter of Ricardo Flores Magón and Mercedes Figueroa, the latter a daughter of Anselmo Figueroa, was summoned because of an attack they are alleged to have made upon Peter Martin, a witness against the Mexican revolutionists.
Martin, a former officer of the "Liberal" army of lower California, in the belief of the prisoners and their girl defenders, was a spy for Diaz.

CHARGES ELECTION CRAFT

DENVER, June 6.—Police Commissioner George Croft yesterday issued the following statement from the fire and police board:
"On May 31 the fire and police board employed 384 men for special duty, so very special in fact, that investigation failed to reveal the nature of it. This means that $8,840 has been lifted from the inadequate funds of the police department. Inquiry reveals the fact that we cannot stop this graft. We only wish we could. But as far as the future is concerned, we pledge the board to discountenance this dishonest and extravagant political practice."

MEMBERS ARIZONA HOUSE IN FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT

With Some of Members Refusing to Vote, Others Join Senate and Re-elect U. S. Senator Fall

SANTA FE, N. M. June 6.—The house late today, after a turbulent session in which members came to blows and the sergeant-at-arms had to clear the house of spectators to restore order, rescinded its resolution not to vote for United States senator. The house cast 25 votes for Albert Fall to succeed himself and cast 20 for Speaker R. L. Ryan. Twenty-two members refused to vote. Those refusing to vote included all of the Democrats, all of the so-called progressive Republicans and three regular Republicans. The house then invited the senate to a joint session and Senator Fall was declared elected for the next six-year term beginning March 4, 1913.

Senator Fall addressed the joint session after being notified of his reelection.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 6.—All members of the Industrial Workers of the World in the city jail announced late today they would plead guilty to charges of violating the city ordinances in the free speech fight. They probably will be placed on probation by court and leave town.

Chief of Police J. K. Wilson stated this action means the end of the fight of the prisoners and he hoped of the Industrial Workers outside the jail further to test the "move on" ordinance and the ordinance regulating free speech in a section of the business district.

Sentence of Woman Who Was to Be Executed for Murder Commuted

BOSTON, Mass., June 6.—Mrs. Lena Cusumano will not have to die in the electric chair. After a three-hour session today the governor's executive council this afternoon voted for commutation of sentence for the woman.

MRS. LENA CUSUMANO.

who, with her lover, Harry Marshall, or Enrico Mascoli, had been sentenced to death for the murder of her husband, Frank Cusumano. Marshall was executed early this morning.

At last week's session, the council voted four to four on the commutation question, one member being absent. Today's vote was unanimous for commutation to life imprisonment.

If Mrs. Cusumano had lost the council's favor, she would have been the first woman in Massachusetts to die in the chair and the first for 134 years to have paid the death penalty in the state.

California Figures Showing Taft Men Elected, Withdrawn

SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 6.—Secretary of State Jordan has recalled his figures in the primary election returns for the Fourth congressional district, which purported to show that the Taft delegates, E. H. Tryon and Morris Mayerfield Jr., had been elected over the Roosevelt delegates. His action was based upon a certified statement from the San Francisco county registrar showing that the dividing line between the Fourth and Fifth districts was so irregularly drawn as to divide voting districts. No positive figures, therefore, of the vote for these two congressional districts can be given, as there is no method of showing which were Roosevelt delegate votes and which Taft delegate votes.

The statement of the San Francisco registrar is expected to have an effect upon the contest to be made by the Taft proponents for the seating of the Fourth district Taft delegates.

It is reported from Brussels that the negotiations which have been in progress for the formation of a Belgian match trust have now led to the definite combination of 11 match factories out of 15 factories in the country. The capital of the trust amounts to 7,000,000 francs (franc, 19.3 cents) and bonds of 2,000,000 francs are to be issued later on. A syndicate of Antwerp banks has been constituted for taking over 40,000 shares of 500 francs each in the trust.

ENTIRE FACULTY RENEWED

LARAMIE, Wyo., June 6.—The trustees of the University of Wyoming have elected the entire faculty, headed by Henry G. Knight as director of the experiment station. Leon C. Egelby was elected physical director in place of H. I. Dean. He is from Britton, Mich., and played last year on the football team as left halfback. The budget as prepared by President Merica was adopted with practically no change. Merica will be succeeded as president August 1 by Dr. C. A. Dunlavy, now president of the University of Montana.

INVESTIGATING APPOINTMENT

DENVER, June 6.—Mayor Arnold is likely to "take back" the appointment of C. T. Rawlitt, former member of the legislature, as superintendent of garbage inspection. Rawlitt, it is charged, did not register at the last election, and some say he is not a resident of Denver. Mayor Arnold said he would investigate the charge.

Isidore Becker was appointed animal collector by Mayor Arnold. Abe Schradsky, whom he is supposed to succeed, says the job is still his and defies Becker to take it. He says he has a two years' contract with the city.

PROMISES TO AID RAILROAD

DENVER, June 6.—Upon taking office Mayor Arnold sent a telegram advising William G. Evans that the new administration would do everything to further the success of the Moffat railroad. In reply the mayor received a telegram from Mr. Evans thanking him and directing his attention to the necessity of obtaining lower freight rates between Galveston and Denver as one of the first steps in the program to develop the city.

FRENZIED AUDIENCE

Mouth quick, but it was like bucking a stone wall to try to disperse the crowd largely composed of women and girls (only one thought occupied the minds of the people—to see the Burns). The police gave up, and the management then asked that all who held reserved seat tickets go around to the stage door where they would be admitted. This plan worked so far as concerned those who were on the outside of the crowd but when it came to those who had become packed in the middle of the mob, it was useless. They could not move either way.

Mad Rush When Doors Open

At about 8 o'clock the management saw that both force and persuasion were useless, and ordered the doors thrown open. The rush for seats and even standing room, equaled that ever witnessed in Colorado Springs. In a very few moments every seat in the house was taken, and standing room was scarce. Before the exercises started, it was literally impossible to get inside the door.

With the raising of the curtain the manager of the house heaved a big sigh thinking that all his troubles were over but he was mistaken.

The exercises had not progressed more than 10 minutes before a woman in the balcony fainted and before she could be reached by any one in authority another one near her had also fainted. And here the crowd showed the same frenzied obstinacy as before. Talk as he might, the manager who had wedged his way upstairs could not get them to make an opening large enough to let the house employees carry out the unconscious women. Such aid as was available under the conditions was given the women and they soon recovered, remaining throughout the exercises. With the exception of much shouting and pushing on the part of many members of the mob nothing else occurred to mar the occasion.

CONCEDES ADVISABILITY JUDICIAL REGULATION CLEARING HOUSE ASSN.

NEW YORK, June 6.—That the immediate action by the New York Clearing House association over the banks of the country's financial center and arbitrarily lodged in the hands of five men, should be placed under judicial regulation, was conceded by William Sherer, manager of the association, on the witness stand.

Mr. Sherer was the chief witness at the first hearing held by the house committee on banking and currency, which is investigating the so-called "money trust."

Samuel Untermyer, special counsel for the committee developed through his testimony that the destiny of practically every financial institution in New York potentially was at the mercy of the "money trust," determination or order of the five men who composed the "New York Clearing House committee."

The clearing house committee had full power over the admissions to membership, according to the testimony of the witness and the power of suspension.

Pays Them Best to Be Straight.
"Then it rests with these five men as to whether they can keep a competitor out of the association?" inquired Mr. Untermyer. "Don't you think that is a monstrous regulation for an institution doing an interstate business?"

"The average banker has a moral status to maintain," replied Mr. Sherer. "He realizes that he can make more money by walking straight than crooked. If the committee took the narrow view of keeping out a competitor it would react against them. Merchants and business men who are the banks' largest customers would never stand for unjust discrimination."

"I am not speaking of motives," pursued the attorney, "but of the unbridled and unlicensed power of these five men. Don't you think this power should be subject to judicial review and control?"

Agrees It Should Be Controlled.
Mr. Sherer then explained that the clearing house association was a voluntary institution and that no court would hold that a voluntary institution could be compelled to accept as a member anyone who could not comply with its regulations.

"But you know that this great power exists should it not be controlled judicially?"

"I agree with you," conceded Mr. Sherer. "Where there is a wrong it should be corrected."

Mr. Untermyer raised the question of the violation of the interstate commerce laws when he brought out from the witness stand by J. P. Morgan & Co. or by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Mr. Untermyer wanted to know why and Professor Loughlin said merely that they had not been solicited.

Don't Want Private Bankers.
From the first witness, Prof. J. Lawrence Loughlin, head of the National Citizens league for the promotion of sound banking, Samuel Untermyer special counsel for the committee, brought out the statement that no contributions had been made to the league's fund by J. P. Morgan & Co. or by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Mr. Untermyer wanted to know why and Professor Loughlin said merely that they had not been solicited.

Why are the names of these great private bankers significantly missing from your subscription list?" asked the attorney of the next witness, Irving T. Bush, chairman of the New York branch of the league.

There was a desire not to take the private bankers' said the witness. "The theory is that the business men and the banks of deposit of the country should carry off the reforms by themselves. The burden of a panic always falls on the merchant."

Andrew Carnegie, he added, had contributed $5,000.

BIGGEST CLASS

Barker, Edith Boyd, Robert Chadbourne, Margaret Laing, Margaret McIntosh, John Ritter, Lilla Robinson, Frank Sheldon, Amelia Weaver and Mary Wing.

Class 1918 Vernon Bryant, William Campbell, Marjorie Cheise, Edwin Duval, Grace Ellison, Josephine Erpa, Staley Gambrell, Cyrus Gambrell, Gladys Grafton, Duncan Hetherington, Maurice Kelling, Pearl Lavering, Robert Morris, Alma Peterson, Harold Patsen, Harold Pond and Mary Titworth.

Before the largest audience that ever attended a commencement program in Colorado Springs, the class of 1918 of Colorado Springs High school received diplomas last night at the Burns theater.

Hundreds were turned away and the theater was filled to its utmost capacity, with nearly half as many standing as seated. The address of the evening was given by Dr. Edward A. Steiner of Grinnell college, who spoke on "Three Historic Answers to a Single Question."

President W. P. Kinney of the board of education presented the diplomas and Principal R. C. Hill awarded the Perkins prize and announced the honor students. The Rev. W. W. Ranne and the Rev. S. E. Brewster gave the invocation and benediction, respectively. Special music was furnished by Pink's orchestra.

Graduates on Platform

The graduates were seated on the platform with the members of the board of education, the speakers and others. The girl graduates were dressed nearly alike and carried bouquets of roses. Girls of the junior class carried wreaths and marched in advance of the graduates.

W. P. Kinney, president of the board gave a short address expressing appreciation to James F. Burns for the use of the theater. He also spoke of the work of the school during the year and took occasion to speak of the need for better high school facilities in Colorado Springs.

Twelve and one-half years attendance in school without a mark for absence or tardiness was the unique record of Chester Archie Smith one of the graduates.

Smith who is 19 years old was born in Colorado City where he went to school until he reached the third grade. He completed the grammar school work at the Washington school and finished the high school work as a member of the 114 class. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Smith of 1209 Washington avenue. His grandfather, Henry Templeton, was one of the earliest settlers in this state. Young Smith already is in business being a junior partner in the Pikes Peak Mineral Water company.

Dr. Steiner's Address

The address of Dr. Steiner, which proved of great interest to the audience, was filled with humor and epigrammatic sentences for which he is noted. He said in part:

"I feel of as little importance as a room at a wedding. To talk upon a scientific subject for a definite length of time is a task I care little to undertake. All those who feel tired are welcome to leave the building. If they can't do that they may go to sleep. I only request that they do that quietly."

Some wise man in the early ages found that the roots of a tree washed down by the floods in the springtime caught the wind and moved while the log in the water lay motionless. He told his son to watch the root and the boy questioned the advantage of sitting on the bank rather than joining in the chase. The father answered the objection of the boy by throwing him in the water. Grabbing the root of the tree to save himself from sinking, he received his first lesson in navigation.

"The men who thought and learned, among early peoples, took the masters of other tribes and enslaved them and became the leaders of civilization. The tribes in the mountains used stones for defense and mastered the tribes that used only wooden instruments for defense. Soon, from the lightning, came the fundamental lesson in kindling fire, of cooking food, and of using metal instruments in self-defense. Every man and woman who uses the advantages of our present civilization, the products of the factories and fields, inherits from that first boy, who watched the tree stump. Right there, comes the great inspiration—that of accomplishment, in the realization that the stone must be cut, the ship must be built."

"That age has passed and another generation read the story, and history was formed."

"A full of mutual fears and jealousies, England's streets are crowded with poor, but battleships must be built and steel must be bought at the cost of the suppression of the people. Great Britain's navy might destroy the navy of Germany, even that of the whole world, but Germany has the world beaten, for she has the most efficient public school system."

"The cry of the world today is the demand for efficiency, and the nation which has the most efficient shoemakers, carpenters, lawyers and statesmen will have the most efficient soldiers and navy. The nation which builds battleships, but is too stingy to pay its schoolmasters, is doomed to die."

Americans Boast

"We hear Americans boast of the biggest things. Every village has something to brag about as being the biggest thing on earth. I was showing some Indians one of the largest buildings in New York, and as I made some explanations, one of them said, 'Mud, water, bricks—big house.' White man big man. I have watched beavers build and rebuild their dams still bigger, after they had been washed out by floods, but I never heard a beaver say, 'That is the biggest dam in the world.'"

"We should stop boasting and get in touch with the past, realize the beautiful things in art and music, and get the value of life at its best."

"Our fathers speak of the three R's—reading, 'riting, 'rithmetic. There is great harm in the three P's, young people, picnics, pies, and parties. We hope for our youthful citizens to attain culture, to forget the colored supplements of newspapers. What a crime it is that the vulgarities of life, the vulgar theaters and picture shows should be crowded while the real beauties of life are unappreciated. The sunsets, the flowers, the glories of God's colored world are forgotten in the rush for show and the ambition to break into polite society, to move to the hill where nobody lives and employ a butler."

"Eat" Alone; "Dine" With Friends

"When I am in New York I eat lunch, when I am invited to dine with a millionaire friend I eat luncheon, where the food is served on gold plates, where the master of the house has everything to eat but no appetite. He has many world famous pictures and when I look at them and remark their wonderfulness, he says, 'I paid $50,000 for that one and $100,000 for these.' I can only say, 'Poor fool! you paid for these pictures, but I own them for it is only I who see them.'"

"Nations do not die because of age or of decay or by the sword but because of exclusiveness. An exclusive aristocracy is the curse of any nation and I implore these young men and women to have a regard for what is common to get the best that the nation holds. Whenever each individual does not have the power to lift himself, the nation dies. You as a child would rather go out in the kitchen and talk to Bridget than sit in the parlor and talk to the women who come to play bridge with your mother. "There is no greater menace today than the tendency toward aristocracy in the public schools. It destroys usefulness and will kill the chances of our young people to live as humans with their fellow men, their chance to be human among humans. Aristocracy without, is as bad as that within. Get in touch with all the people in all the towns. Touch with the common people ennobles the soul. The beauties of life are under our feet and in the sky above our heads."

"In conclusion, do something for Colorado Springs—bring the greatest singers here and make it a place of still greater attractiveness. Let us live be a plea for greater usefulness. Let us maintain through the aid of the public schools an efficient, cultured democracy."

MINNESOTA DELEGATION INSTRUCTED FOR WILSON

DULUTH, Minn., June 6.—Minnesota Democrats at their state convention today voted to send a full delegation of 24 delegates to the national convention with instructions for Woodrow Wilson.

It was agreed however that whenever in the opinion of two-thirds of the delegation, Wilson's nomination is impossible, the vote may be thrown to another candidate.

TAKING NIXON'S BODY TO HOME IN NEVADA

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Funeral services for the late Senator George Nixon of Nevada were held here today. President Taft and scores of members of both houses attended.

At the conclusion of the services, a body was placed on a train for transportation to the home at Reno, Nevada, where services will be held.

The following were designated by senate and house to accompany body to Nevada: Senators Newlands, Bailey, Worley, Hamilton, Brown, Curtis, Oliver, Chablain, Swanson, Clark of Wyoming, and Ashurst, Representative Roberts, Langham, Bowman, Ralston, Hamilton of West Virginia, Dray, Foy, Gould Murray Greene, Lang, and Young of Kansas.

only after the followers of Charles Clark and William J. Bryan had made an attempt to have the delegates instructed for Bryan or not instructed at all.

As a result of the attempt to stop the convention for Bryan, the hall was in an uproar more than once. During all that time, however, the name of Clark was not mentioned.

FIFTH EXPLOSION IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—The fifth explosion in a series that began last Friday night was touched off tonight in a garden at the rear of the house occupied by Tom Corbett, a brother of James J. Corbett, the pugilist and actor.

Corbett was out at the time but his blind niece and a woman friend were in the house. There appears to have been no attempt to damage the house, the intention being merely to frighten or warn its tenants.

Last Friday night three bombs were exploded in a clumsy attempt to wreck the many pool rooms, one of them Corbett's. Last night a stick of dynamite was exploded in a vacant lot adjoining still another pool room.

At first it was thought to be the work of a crank, but the explosions are believed to be part of the same gambling war that shook Chicago.

NEW REPUBLICAN CLUB

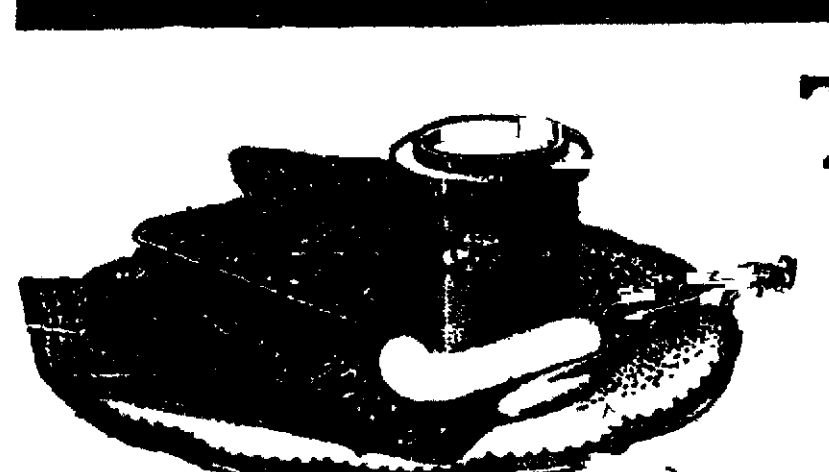

Denver Organization Formed for Purpose of Arousing Party of State to Further Activities.

DENVER, June 6.—For the purpose of arousing the Republican party of the state to the present political situation and enlivening its activities, the Republican club of Denver, according to those who formed it, was organized here tonight. Ninety-five members were enrolled.

Its sponsors are not allied with the present Progressive Republican group which is sending a protesting delegation to Chicago.

The organization would and corporate dictation of conventions, increase ward and precinct activities and have many reform laws now being advocated in the Republican platform.

The Toppo, Tasty Toast

Food science has taught us that there is much body-building nutriment in the whole wheat grain which we do not get in white flour. The only question is how to make the whole wheat grain digestible. That problem has been solved in the Topping.

Triscuit

the shredded whole wheat wafer. It is the whole wheat, steam-cooked, shredded, compressed into a wafer, and baked the maximum of nutriment in smallest bulk. Many people prefer it to ordinary bread toast. Heated in the oven to restore its crispness it is delicious for luncheon, or for any meal, with butter, poached cheese or marmalade.

PAVING BEING PUSHED

The work of laying the binder and asphalt progressed more rapidly yesterday morning than at any other previous time, notwithstanding that there was a continuous drizzling rain, which made conditions for the work on very disagreeable.

Work started early yesterday morning and by noon the binder had been laid on the east side of Tejon between Bijou and Kiowa, and on about four blocks on Kiowa, between Tejon and Nevada. The gang then moved on to the corner of Pikes Peak and Tejon and laid the binder on about a half block of Tejon. Work was suspended early in the afternoon.

The contractors say the east side of Tejon will be completed down to Pikes Peak by tomorrow night.

The work of breaking ground on the west side of Tejon has been started, and about two blocks have been plowed. The excavator will be put on this job soon.

EL PASO COUNTY HERD OF WILD BUILD 17 MILES OF CATTLE SOLD FOR $32,185 NEW ROAD NEXT TUESDAY

Evidence that El Paso county is more and more becoming a stock growing region was found yesterday morning in the sale of $32,185 worth of cattle in one hour and 15 minutes at the Robt. & Shaw ranch at Hatter. They brought an average of $37.12 per head, which is above the regular market rates, although they were sold at auction. The reason for the sale was the high price of cattle, the owners thinking it a good time to sell.

MOUNTAIN SHEEP IN GARDEN OF THE GODS

The theory advanced by old time hunters, that mountain sheep never venture down in the foothills was disproved yesterday, when a sheep came down from the foothills west of Glen Eyrie to the Gateway rocks in the garden of the Gods, stood looking around for several minutes and then calmly turned around and walked back again.

Seventeen miles of railroad in day is the work planned by the county commissioners for next Tuesday when a big rally of road builders will be held on the stretch of road which is to be built from the town of Fountain to the town of Silt. Every able-bodied man in Fountain and in the region southeast of that place has volunteered his services. It is said, and 195 teams will be supplied. The county commissioners are sending drain pipe to the locality, and will furnish two teams, besides scrapers and other road working implements Tuesday. The repairs of the road will be in charge of Commissioner Hutchinson and W. H. Butler.

Double quick, but it was like bucking a stone wall to try to disperse the crowd. They were composed of women and girls. Only one thought occupied the minds of the people—to see the Burns. The police gave up and the management then asked that all who held reserved seat tickets go around to the stage door, where they would be admitted. This plan worked so far as concerned those who were on the outside of the crowd but when it came to those who had become packed in the middle of the mob, it was useless. They could not move either way.

Mad Rush When Doors Open.

At about 8 o'clock the management saw that both force and persuasion were useless, and ordered the doors thrown open. The rush for seats, and even standing room, equaled that ever witnessed in Colorado Springs. In a very few moments every seat in the house was taken, and standing room was scarce. Before the exercises started, it was literally impossible to get inside the door.

With the raising of the curtain the manager of the house heaved a big sigh thinking that all his troubles were over, but he was mistaken.

The exercises had not progressed more than 10 minutes before a woman in the balcony fainted and before she could be reached by any one in authority another one near her had also fainted. And here the crowd showed the same frenzied obstinacy as before. Talk as he might, the manager, who had wedged his way upstairs could not get them to make an opening large enough to let the house employees carry out the unconscious women. Such aid as was available under the conditions was given the women and they soon recovered, remaining throughout the exercises. With the exception of much shoving and pushing on the part of many members of the mob nothing else occurred to mar the occasion.

CONCEDES ADVISABILITY

JUDICIAL REGULATION CLEARING HOUSE ASSN.

NEW YORK, June 6.—That the immense power wielded by the New York Clearing House association over the banks of the country's financial center and arbitrarily lodged in the hands of five men, should be placed under judicial regulation, was conceded by William Sherer, manager of the association, on the witness stand.

Mr. Sherer was the chief witness at the first hearing held by the house committee on banking and currency which is investigating the so-called "money trust."

Samuel Untermyer, special counsel for the committee, asked through his lawyer, George F. Johnson, that the destiny of practically every financial institution in New York potentially was at the mercy of the "money trust, determination or order" of the five men who composed the New York Clearing House committee.

The clearing house committee had full power over the admissions to membership, according to the testimony of the witness and the power of suspension.

Pays Them Best to Be Straight.

"Then it rests with these five men as to whether they can keep a competitor out of the association?" inquired Mr. Untermyer. "Don't you think that is a monstrous regulation for an institution doing an interstate business?"

"The average banker has a moral status to maintain," replied Mr. Sherer. "He realizes that he can make more money by walking straight than crooked. If the committee took the narrow view of keeping out a competitor, it would react against them. Merchants and business men who are the banks' largest customers would never stand for unjust discrimination."

I am not speaking of motives.

"I am not speaking of motives," pursued the attorney, "but of the unbridled and unlicensed power of the men. Don't you think this power should be subject to judicial regulation and control?"

Agrees It Should Be Controlled.

Mr. Sherer then explained that the clearing house association was a voluntary institution and that no court would hold that a voluntary institution could be compelled to accept as a member anyone who could not comply with its regulations.

But you know that this great power exists should it not be controlled judicially.

"I agree with you," conceded Mr. Sherer. "Where there is a wrong it should be corrected."

Mr. Untermyer raised the question of the violation of the interstate commerce laws when he brought out from the witness that by taxing the collection of checks on out of town banks, the New York Clearing House institution levied on the country a tribute of over $4,000,000 annually.

Don't Want Private Bankers.

From the first witness, Prof. J. Lawrence Loughlin, head of the National Citizens league for the promotion of sound banking, Samuel Untermyer, special counsel for the committee, brought out the statement that no contributions had been made to the league fund by J. P. Morgan & Co. or by Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

Mr. Untermyer wanted to know why Professor Loughlin said merely that they had not been solicited.

"Why are the names of these great private bankers significantly missing from your subscription list?" asked the attorney of the next witness, Irving T. Rush, chairman of the New York branch of the league.

There was a design not to take the private bankers into the witness' "The theory is that the business men and the banks of deposit of the country should carry off the reforms by themselves. The burden of a panic always falls on the merchant."

Andrew Carnegie he added, had contributed $5,000.

BIGGEST CLASS

Barker, Edith Boyd, Robert Chadbourne, Margaret Laing, Margaret McIntosh, John Ritter, Lella Robinson, Frank Sheldon, Amelia Weaver and Mabel Wing.

Class 1915: Vernon Bryant, William Campbell, Marjorie Chase, Edwin Duval, Grace Ellison, Josephine Erps, Staley Gambrill, Cyrus Gambrill, Gladys Grafton, Duncan Hetherington, Maurine Katsling, Pearl Laverling, Robert Morris, Alma Peterson, Harold Peterson, Harold Pond and Mary Titworth.

Before the largest audience that ever attended a commencement program in Colorado Springs, the graduates of the class of 1915 of Colorado Springs High school received diplomas last night at the Burns theater.

Hundreds were turned away and the theater was filled to its utmost capacity, with nearly half as many standing as seated. The address of the evening was given by Dr. Edward A. Steiner of Grinnell college, who spoke on "Three Historic Answers to a Single Question."

President W. P. Kinney of the board of education presented the diplomas and Principal R. C. Hill awarded the Perkins prizes and announced the honor students. The Rev. W. W. Ganney and the Rev. S. E. Ruwater gave the invocation and benediction, respectively. Special music was furnished by Fink's orchestra.

Graduates on Platform.

The graduates were seated on the platform with the members of the board of education, the speakers and others. The girl graduates were dressed nearly alike and carried bouquets of roses. Girls of the junior class carried wreaths and marched in advance of the graduates.

W. P. Kinney president of the board gave a short address expressing appreciation to James F. Burns for the use of the theater. He then spoke of the work of the school during the year and took occasion to speak of the need for better high school facilities in Colorado Springs.

Twelve and one-half years' attendance in school without a mark for absence or tardiness was the unique record of Chester Archie Smith, one of the graduates.

Smith who is 19 years old, was born in Colorado City where he went to school until he reached the third grade. He completed the grammar school work at the Washington school and finished the high school work as a member of the 114th class. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Smith of 1202 Washington avenue. His grandfather, Henry Templeton, was one of the earliest settlers in this state.

Yonux Smith already is in business being a junior partner in the Pikes Peak Mineral Water company.

Dr. Steiner's Address.

The address of Dr. Steiner, which proved of great interest to the audience, was filled with humor and apt, dramatic sentences for which he is noted. He said in part:

"I feel as if little importance as a groom at a wedding. To talk upon a scientific subject for a definite length of time is a task I care little to undertake. All those who feel tired are welcome to leave the building. If they can't do that they may go to sleep. I only request that they do so quietly."

Some wise man in the early ages found that the roots of a tree washed down by the floods in the springtime caught the wind and moved while the log in the water lay motionless. He told his son to watch the root and the boy questioned the advantage of sitting on the bank rather than joining in the chase. The father answered the objection of the boy by throwing him in the water. Grabbing the root of the tree to save himself.

FIFTH EXPLOSION IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—The fifth explosion in a series that began last Friday night was touched off tonight in a garden at the rear of the house occupied by Tom Corbett, a brother of James J. Corbett, the pugilist and actor.

Corbett was out at the time but his blind niece and a woman friend were in the house. There appears to have been no attempt to damage the house, the intention being merely to frighten or warn its tenants.

Last Friday night three bombs were exploded in a clumsy attempt to wreck as many pool rooms, one of them Corbett's. Last night a stick of dynamite was exploded in a vacant lot adjoining still another pool room.

At first it was thought to be the work of a crank, but the explosions are now believed to be part of the same gambling war that shook Chicago.

NEW REPUBLICAN CLUB

Denver Organization Formed for Purpose of Arousing Party of State to Further Activities.

DENVER, June 6.—For the purpose of arousing the Republican party of the state to the present political situation and enlivening its activities, the Republican club of Denver, according to those who formed it, was organized here tonight. Ninety-five members were enrolled.

The organization would and corporate dictation of conventions, increase ward and precinct activities and have many reform laws now being advocated in the Republican platform.

A. A. Joe, assistant attorney general, is president; Oscar D. Cass, vice president; R. T. Runyon, secretary; H. P. Thompson, Jr., treasurer. The executive board includes J. C. Clark, Nathan, F. M. Briggs and J. C. Clark, Nathan.

from sinking, he received his first lesson in navigation.

The men who thought and learned, among early peoples, took the masters of other tribes and enslaved them and became the leaders of civilization. The tribes in the mountains used stones for defense and mastered the tribes that used only wooden instruments for defense. Soon, from the lightning, came the fundamental lesson in kindling fire, of cooking food, and of using metal instruments in self-defense. Every man and woman, who uses the advantages of our present civilization, the products of the factories and fields, inherits from that first boy, who watched the tree stump. Right there, comes the great inspiration—that of accomplishment, in the realization that the stone must be cut, the ship must be built.

"That age has passed and another generation read the story, and history was formed."

"The men of the world today are full of mutual fears and jealousies. England's streets are crowded with poor, but battleships must be built and steel must be bought at the cost of the suppression of the people. Great Britain's navy might destroy the navy of Germany; even that of the whole world, but Germany has the world beaten, for she has the most efficient public school system."

"The cry of the world today is the demand for efficiency, and the nation which has the most efficient shoemakers, carpenters, lawyers and statesmen will have the most efficient soldiers and navy. The nation which builds battleships, but is too stingy to pay its schoolmasters, is doomed to die."

Americans Boast.

"We hear Americans boast of the biggest things. Every village has something to brag about as being the biggest thing on earth. I was showing some Indians one of the largest buildings in New York, and as I made some explanations, one of them said, 'Mud, water, bricks—big house.' White man big man! I have watched beavers build and rebuild their dams still bigger after they had been washed out by floods, but I never heard a beaver say, 'That is the biggest dam in the world.'"

"We should stop boasting and get in touch with the past, realize the beautiful things in art and music, and get the value of life at its best."

"Our fathers speak of the three R's, reading, 'riting, 'rithmetic. There is great harm in the three P's, young people, picnics, pies and parties. We hope for our youthful citizens to attain culture to forget the colored supplements of newspapers. What a crime it is that the vulgarities of life, the vulgar theories and picture shows should be created while the real beauties of life are unappreciated."

"The sunsets, the flowers, the glories of God's colored world are forgotten in the rush for show and the ambition to break into polite society to move to the hill where nobody lives and employ a butler."

"Eats" Alone, "Dines" With Friends.

"When I am in New York I eat lunch, when I am invited to dine with a millionaire friend I eat luncheon, where the food is served on gold platters, where the master of the house has everything to eat but no appetite. He has many world famous pictures and when I look at them and remark their wonderfulness he says, 'I paid $50,000 for that one and $100,000 for these.' I can only say, 'Poor fool! you paid for these pictures, but I own them, for it is only I who see them.'"

Nations do not die because of old age or of decay, or by the sword, but because of exclusiveness. An exclusive aristocracy is the curse of any nation and I implore these young men and women to have a regard for what is common to get the best that the nation holds. Whenever each individual does not have the power to lift himself, the nation dies. You as a child would rather go out in the kitchen and talk to Bridget than stay in the parlor and talk to the women who come to play bridge with your mother. The Bushman traded bananas for beads to put around his neck that he might

As a result of the attempt to stop the convention for Brvan, the hall was in an uproar more than an hour. During all that time, however, the name of Clark was not mentioned.

PAVING BEING PUSHED

and by noon the binder had been laid on the east side of Tejon between Bijou and Kiowa, and on about half block on Kiowa between Tejon and New.

The Yang then moved down to the corner of Pikes Peak and Tejon and laid the binder on about a half block of Tejon. Work was suspended early in the afternoon.

The contractors say the east side of Tejon will be completed down to Pikes Peak by tomorrow night.

The work of breaking ground on the west side of Tejon has been started, and at two blocks has been plowed. The excavator will be put on this stretch soon.

BROADMOOR CASINO OPENS

Despite the weather the formal opening of Broadmoor casino last evening called out a large and fashionable assemblage of Colorado Springs society people. While the weather caused a number to cancel their dinner engagements at the last moment, at least 80 covers were required for the guests. More than twice that number arrived in time for the dancing that began at 8:30 and the scene was a most brilliant and delightful one.

In view of last night's incident, it was announced that another dinner dance will be given tomorrow evening, at which time a table d'hôte dinner will be served and the same general program as that of last night is being offered.

The place was never more attractive than last evening as Manager Schlotter had every thing in gala array. The tables were decorated with carnations and sweet peas and the dinner menu left nothing to be desired.

This season the dances will be held Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. Fink's orchestra of six pieces, instead of four, as in previous years, will furnish the music.

Mrs. Frank Smith of Denver will have charge of the children's dances to be held every Thursday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Every afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock tea will be served upon the lawn of the piazzas.

Mrs. Sarah Platt-Decker of Denver has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Alva M. Platt, to Caldwell Martin, son of G. W. Martin, general passenger agent of the Rock Island road. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Miss Platt was a student at Cutler academy and Colorado college, and is well known in this city. Mr. Martin, who is an attorney, is a graduate of Cornell university.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

MOUNTAIN SHEEP IN GARDEN OF THE GODS

The theory advanced by old-time hunters, that mountain sheep never venture down in the foothills, was disproved yesterday, when a sheep came down from the foothills west of Glen Eyrie to the Gateway rocks in the garden of the Gods, and stood around for several minutes, and then calmly turned around and walked back again.

M. C. Swisher, proprietor of the refreshment stand in the Garden, came into Colorado Springs yesterday with the startling information that he had seen a mountain sheep in the Gateway.

The animal slowly walked down to the Gateway rocks, said Swisher, and then walked back again. I just happened to be in front of the stand and saw him as he walked in between the rocks. He went back toward Glen Eyrie.

COG ROAD WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THOSE WALKING UP PIKES PEAK

We will not be responsible for persons who attempt to climb to the summit of the Peak despite warnings. This is the gist of a statement made yesterday by President W. Sells of the Cog road.

Two women and five children attempted to walk to the summit of the Peak and back Wednesday, but when they arrived at the summit house they were so exhausted they were unable to make the return trip. They demanded that they be taken back to Manitou by the Cog road, but President Sells insisted upon the enforcement of rules issued last summer and refused to allow them to return by the train without paying the regular fare.

The women raised such a protest at the summit house that those in charge passed the fact and got enough money to pay the fares of the women back to Manitou, the children being allowed to ride free.

President Sells says the rule will be enforced this year, and if people insist on trying to make the trip when they are unfit for it, he will appeal to the humane society to station a guard just above Manitou on the Cog road.

EL PASO STILL GAINS

El Paso stock took another rise yesterday and 50,739 shares changed hands at prices ranging from 8 1/2 cents to 12 1/4 cents, the market closing at the latter figure. The stock sold at 9 1/2 cents on the New York curb, and minimum men say it will exceed $1.

The reason for the advance is attributed to an important strike just made in the mine led to the sale of 400,000 shares to German and Swiss capitalists by Joseph Walker & Sons, New York financial agents for the El Paso company.

M. Herberstein of Denver, one of the directors, was in the city yesterday and stated that a rich strike has been made on the 1,000-foot level, and that ore developments in other places have far exceeded expectations. He says the company will now pay regular dividends of 15 per cent on the par value of the stock.

The other stocks on the local exchange were also affected by the advance in El Paso this morning. Mary McKinney advanced to 7 1/2 cents and Elkhorn to 6 1/2 cents. Several others realized slight advances.

Home Rule Amendment Is Not

Understood; Signatures Slow

The necessity of obtaining at the general election next fall the home rule amendment to the state constitution, making it legal for cities operating under the charter form of government to abide by the election provisions of their charters instead of the state laws, does not seem to be generally understood by the residents of Colorado Springs, and for this reason the petitions asking that this amendment be initiated are not being signed rapidly.

In view of the recent supreme court decision upholding state election laws as supreme, attorneys of the three cities having charters—Colorado Springs, Pueblo and Grand Junction—declare that a constitutional amendment is needed to perpetuate charter government, where already established, and to permit its establishment in Denver and elsewhere if voted for. About 18,000 names are necessary to initiate the amendment, and it is expected that Colorado Springs will furnish approximately one-fifth of that number.

The amendment, as outlined below, is proposed to take the place of section 5 of the constitution, known as the Rush amendment.

Following is a general statement of the provisions to be set forth in the amendment as recommended:

PROVISIONS OF AMENDMENT.

Proposals for charter conventions may be submitted to the city council at any time and shall be submitted upon a petition filed by the required number of qualified voters as set forth in Article 5 of the Twentieth amendment. Delegates shall be elected, charter conventions held, and charters submitted for adoption or rejection at the times provided for in Sections 4 and 5 of the Twentieth amendment.

Whenever any city has voted to hold a charter convention in accordance with the proposed amendment the exclusive power to adopt a new charter, and such charter when adopted shall be the organic law of the city and supersede any existing charters and amendments thereto. Such charter may be amended or a new charter adopted in the same manner as set forth in Sections 4 and 5 of the Twentieth amendment.

Any such city adopting a charter pursuant to the provisions of the proposed amendment shall have the power granted in Sections 4 and 5 of the Twentieth amendment, with full power to regulate real and personal property and public utilities, works and ways as set out in Section 1 of the Rush amendment.

Every city which has adopted a charter, or shall vote to hold a charter convention, including the city and county of Denver, shall have exclusive power to manage, control and legislate concerning its local, special, municipal and governmental affairs, including the power to fix and change from time to time the jurisdiction, term of office, duties and qualifications of its officers and agents and to provide the manner and time of their elections or appointment, and to prescribe the time, manner and forms of nominations, elections and registrations and the appointment of election and registration officers, and to regulate and control in all particulars all city elections.

The violation of election provisions of any charter shall be considered criminal and punishable in accordance with the statutes of the state. Power is given to issue and refund all municipal obligations, including bonds of park, water and local improvement districts.

The method of consolidation of the park and water districts may be provided in charters upon a vote of a majority of the qualified electors voting upon the questions involved in the districts affected. Power to levy taxes and to provide for the assessment and collections of same for the purpose of defraying such expenses is granted either to city or county officials.

The charters of any cities adopted before the new amendment goes into effect and in accordance with it, are ratified and confirmed. All elections and other proceedings held under such charters, which are in conformity with the provisions of the proposed draft are validated, affirmed and ratified.

Miss Mabel A. Tinkham, aged 22 years, died Wednesday night. The body will be taken to her former home in Vermont by her father, Dr. Henry C. Tinkham, professor of anatomy at Vermont university. She came here about a year ago for the benefit of her health.

ASSURE COMPLETION OF NEW THEATER IN DENVER

DENVER, June 3.—The splendid achievement was accomplished yesterday. The men who have been behind the great Shubert theater and office building met at the office of the company in the Boston block and subscribed all the funds needed to pay for its immediate completion.

By Monday full forces of mechanics, decorators and others will be at work on the structure, and it will be fully completed throughout on or before September 1. This is no mere boom announcement. It is a plain statement of a completed transaction. The money has been provided, and thus insures the complete fulfillment of what was yesterday decided upon.

After the meeting adjourned Mr. Shubert was wired at New York to go ahead with the booking of attractions for the coming season for the new theater. It is expected that the opening will be with one of the great companies of this country and that the opening affair will be brilliant.

The theater itself is to be one of the most beautiful in the United States.

It will be considerably larger than any other in Denver. No Denver theater approaches it, as it will be finished in richness and artistic design, and every modern contrivance to insure the safety of audiences and the ventilation, heating and lighting of the great audience chamber has been provided. It will be a building and theater of which every Denverite will be proud.

EDWIN HAWLEY FOR DIVORCE

NEW YORK, June 6.—A romance which began in 1898, when Frederick H. Crandell became estranged from his wife, the late Edwin Hawley, because of his marriage to Miss Adeline D. McManus, a stenographer in the offices of the Southern Pacific railroad, found its way, after many devious paths, into the supreme court when Mrs. Crandell began a suit for separation.

The papers filed by Mrs. Crandell's counsel recite a long story of the unhappy existence led by Mrs. Crandell since the day of her marriage. She mentioned many apartments from which they were dispossessed because of failure of her husband to provide proper support, and brings the story to a climax by the recital of events which, in January last, caused her to be sentenced to 20 days in the workhouse on a charge of disorderly conduct.

It was while Mrs. Crandell was serving this term that Edwin Hawley died, leaving many millions of dollars to be divided among his relatives. Mrs. Crandell was released from the workhouse on February 5. Until then she did not know that her husband had inherited a fortune, variously estimated at from $1,000,000 to $3,000,000.

From the time of her marriage, on March 3, 1898, Mrs. Crandell alleges Mr. Crandell treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner. In 1909, the complaint charges, Mr. Crandell refused to work and provide support for his wife, and because of this they were dispossessed from their apartments. Mrs. Crandell says Mr. Crandell forced her to work, and then took her earnings and gambled.

Palmer Is Latest Pug to Quit His Manager

By ED. W. SMITH.
CHICAGO, June 6.—We are told that Palmer, the Iowa giant, who has been thoroughly boomed by Tom O'Rourke, is the latest pug to quit his manager. At the same time, he has declared himself as being against all managers, and Tom O'Rourke in particular. Like most young fighters just budding into their full ring powers, Palmer imagines he can get along without the balance wheel of a good manager. He can't, but it may take him some time to find it out.

Palmer says Tom O'Rourke "didn't react him right in the matter of money." O'Rourke says he made Palmer that he is, which is doubtless correct, and that he is an ungrateful big boob, and there you are.

Following the succeeding list of happenings down, we find that all of them quit their business partners with bad grace. Jim Corbett and Billy Brady quarrel, and, later, Billy Delany took the pompadour one. Bob Fitzsimmons never got along well for any length of time with Martin Julian, his brother-in-law, although there was a domestic alliance at that alliance that tangled things badly.

Jim Jeffries did well under Billy Delany's handling, but finally fell out seriously with the veteran of Oakland, who died still thinking that Jim was the most ungrateful of men.

Tommy Burns never was much for managers and quarreled with Billy Noel, the only real live one he ever had. Had Noel survived the ordeal of landing the Canadian, probably Jack Johnson would have been back at the title.

Johnson started out with Sam Fitzpatrick, but outgrew that veteran after the Australian campaign, during which he won the title, and later took up with George W. Little of this city, only to quarrel bitterly with him just before the Reno fight that brought the downfall of Jeffries.

Among other big fellows, Gus Ruhlin and Billy Madden formed an alliance, and this, too, was broken when the money began to flow in freely.

Summing it up casually, it must be admitted that Tom O'Rourke has made more of his fighters than any surviving manager since the day of veterans like "Faron" Davies, who made Peter Jackson and others.

The colored boys stick closely. Note the case of Joe Gans and Al Herford. They were all but inseparable.

Later day fighters have shifted managers much. Look at Packey McFarland, Al Volcast, Battling Nelson and some others. They get along beautifully—but not without the clever guiding hand. Some fighters of unusual parts, like Tommy Ryan and Kid McCoy, never bothered much with managers, but many times got the worst of deals.

Dreyfuss Picks Star Players by Intuition

PITTSBURGH, June 6.—It is more than intuition that brings out star players and gives them big league experience. Dreyfuss, the Pittsburgh manager, has often been asked, and he has often said it looks very much as though it is about an even break. Baseball is largely a game of chance, and the fellow who has the "lucky streak" is the one that counts by bankroll with a surety at the finish of the season.

Was it luck that Fred Clarke became manager of the Pittsburgh baseball team or was it just that intuition that brought him out from the bushes and made him the greatest leader that ever piloted a baseball team across a lot? The story of how Clarke broke into the big league is known to some, but a good story bears repeating. During a fanning bee at baseball headquarters recently, it was related direct from Dreyfuss himself just how he picked up Clarke.

Dreyfuss has been in baseball for 19 years. He formerly played on an amateur team, big as so poor a second baseman that he was shifted to pitcher and did worse. Barney liked the sport and decided to run a team of his own. This was away back in the early days of the game. Dreyfuss was interested in a distilling concern at Paducah, Ky., and had purchased an interest in the Louisville team.

The colonels had a good baseball team, but the city was not large enough to support it, and the owners were sinking several thousand dollars yearly into the venture. When on a trip to Arkansas, in the interest of the distilling business, Dreyfuss met some big league players at Memphis, Tenn., and being an ardent baseball fan went out to see Savannah and Memphis play.

The score that day was 2 to 2 in favor of Memphis. There was one player on the Savannah team that put on a brilliant game. He started in the outfield, but the catcher was put out of commission by a foul tip and a shift was made to send him behind the plate. Dreyfuss did not even know what the player's name was, but after the game he hunted up the manager and asked how much he would take for the services of the youngster.

Barney was informed that the player was Fred Clarke, and that $100 would secure his services. Five minutes later Clarke had been turned over to the owner of the Savannah team, and Clarke was to be to Louisville.

Fred jumped in with a rush and made good the first day out and soon headed the aggregation. When the transfer was made of the Louisville team to Pittsburgh, Clarke was brought along as manager, and as Barney owned more than half the stock of the combined clubs at that time, his word went, and the judgment has proven its worth.

It was an accident that caused Dreyfuss to attend the game at Memphis, and it was baseball intuition that caused him to save a fifty player in Clarke after watching him perform on the short end of a 25 to 2 game.

Barney Byrne was playing up around New England and was grabbed up by accident. His purchase price, 100,000, was $300. The story of how Wagner is another that smacks of more luck and intuition, however. Honus was tipped off to Dreyfuss as a likely player, and there were several scouts who were up around Brooklyn watching the Dutchman perform. A lively bidding was started between Dreyfuss and the owners of the Pittsburgh club, and finally Barney hustled Harry Pulliam over east to grab the player before the price went too high. The deal was put through for $2,000, then the highest price ever paid for a baseball player. Up until the time of reporting, Dreyfuss had never seen Wagner in action.

Securing Tommy Leach was another stroke. Barney had heard of Tommy and went to look him up. He found he was a little late, however, as another baseball scout had reached the scene first and secured an option on the services of Leach for $100. But the other fellow passed up Leach as a "chump," saying he was too small to make good. Barney bought the option for $100 and went home that night with the contract of Tommy in his jeans.

Top Price Paid for New Yankee Fielder

NEW YORK, June 6.—In an effort to secure a fast man to take the place of Harry Wolfers, who may not play this season, the Highlander management stepped in with a bankroll and purchased Pat Maloney, the best priced outfielder that ever came of the New England league. For several weeks clubs in both big leagues have been dickering for this phenom player, and the bidding has been heated. At the last minute Frank Bell instructed Arthur Irwin to go limit and when he pulled off an untold close to $10,000 the Brooklyn management turned Maloney loose. He joined the club at Detroit.

Maloney, the big league clubs, supposed to be a great asset so far as to offer to buy the entire Brooklyn outfield as to get Maloney, but by a smooth maneuver Irwin beat them to it.

So far this season Maloney has hit .412. He is said to be as fast as Harry Ray or George Browne were in their prime. In fact, Maloney quit playing ball two years ago to take part in professional sprinting races out west, and on a considerable sum of money. Later he played with the Galveston club of the Texas league.

For the last 10 days scouts have been pouring into Brooklyn, and to a man they declare Maloney to be the greatest piece of outfielding machinery that has been discovered since the advent of Ty Cobb. Irwin says that he will stake his reputation on Maloney being the fastest base runner that ever cut loose on the hill.

Garrett Is High Gun At Webster Tourney

WEBSTER, S. D., June 6.—At the big state shoot now being held here, John W. Garrett of Colorado Springs was again high professional, and having a strong lead for the two days shoot. Garrett broke 142 out of 150. Kroger was second, with 138, and Taylor third, with 123.

J. Potter White was again high amateur, making the same score he did yesterday, 138. Wilson, second, 129, and Slocum, third, 128. It was warmer today, but the targets appeared to be just as hard for the shooters, with the exception of Garrett. Yesterday in an extra open event the Springs man was high gun.

Clarke Is Sore Over Swap-Made With Cubs

PITTSBURGH, June 6.—Fred Clarke, manager of the Pirates, gave Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club, a finer exemplification of how he can get when in a rage, when he found that Leach and Leifield had been traded to the Cubs for Hoffmann and "King" Cole without consultation with him than he ever did any umpire in his long league career.

Those who are cognizant with what occurred when Clarke learned of the deal that had been made over his head say that the air fairly burned with the words hurled from the lips of the third baseman, and while Dreyfuss' face was still burning from the contumacious heaped upon him, Clarke emphatically declared that this was absolutely his last year as manager of the Pittsburgh team.

Not one of the thousands of fans here, with whom the trade is still the consuming topic of conversation, was more surprised than Clarke, when the trade became known to him. It has long been an open secret that Leach and Leifield, both faithful players and formerly a nodding acquaintance with the club president, but because of the sensational game the committee Leach has been playing, it was thought that the club owner would not dare to trade him. The deepest affection has always existed between Clarke and Leach, and this was amply evinced when it came time for these two "pals" militant players who gave the best that was in them for many years to the man whose pen separated them, to say farewell.

At the request of Clarke, all the other Pirates left the club house. Then the manager, with his arms entwined the neck of his little comrade, the moisture in his eyes and his tremulous voice showing how deeply he was moved, said:

"Temple, old pal, you know I had nothing to do with it. I would rather it was instead of you that was being changed, I am sorry."

It was widely known that Leach was disappointed when Wagner was made captain of the team.

His magnificent work during his long connection with the team and his recognized leadership in the great machine a few years ago had stamped Tommy as a first-year candidate for the job of leading the 1912 Pirate pennant charge.

Friends of Leach are attributing the recent poor showing of the ballers to the dissatisfaction existing with members of the team over the selection of "Honus" who is popular as the smaller member of the once famous Pirate trio with his teammates, over Leach. The choice of the shortstop is blamed on Dreyfuss.

Motorbike Rider Is Killed in Race

SALT LAKE CITY, June 6.—Henry "Henie" Potter, an amateur motorcycle rider, was thrown from his machine at the motordrome president, tonight, and killed.

The accident occurred at the finish of a three-mile race. Potter was riding at 65 miles an hour, near the top of the track, when a pedal struck the bank, causing the machine to collide with a light pole, throwing the rider into the arena.

Olmssted Is Released

DENVER, June 6.—Pitcher Henry Olmssted was released unconditionally from the Denver Western league team today, and Jack Rowan, pitcher for the Louisville association team, purchased.

Washington Boy Here On Walk to New York

After being arrested in Ogden, Utah, a few days for the murder of a woman and child, Clyde Paton, a 19-year-old high school boy of Rochester, Wash., reached Colorado Springs yesterday. He is tramping across the country with New York city the goal, and according to his schedule will reach the metropolis some time in September.

Young Paton left his home April 1, accompanied by Guy Neeley, but the latter gave out after walking 250 miles and returned to Rochester. Paton is averaging from 20 to 25 miles a day, and as he has until October 1 to reach New York, he believes he will win his wager.

Paton had no unusual experiences on his travels until he reached Ogden. He answered in a general way the description of a young man wanted there for murder, and he was detained in that city for two hours until the authorities were satisfied he was a "chump."

"I will stay in Colorado Springs three days," said Paton yesterday, "and will take a number of photographs to be used with magazine articles telling of my travels. I have a letter of introduction from Governor Hay of Washington to Governor Dix of New York, and today I secured a letter from Mayor Avery to Mayor Gaynor. I am making the trip partly to win a wager and partly to advertise the Republic postiche to be held in that city July 15 to 20. While here I will see my uncle, J. A. Van Eaton, 211 North Belmont street. Today's rain is the first I have seen in the last month."

Indoor Ballyard Is Planned at Ithaca

ITHACA, N. Y., June 6.—Cornell university will have the first baseball building ever constructed in this country next season. Plans have been prepared by John V. Van Pelt of this city and specifications are already in the hands of contractors for bids. As soon as they have been received work will be begun at once, and it is expected that the building, for the time being, will be able to begin work early in the spring of 1913, and practice can go on no matter what the weather may be.

The plans call for a one-story building, about 35 feet high in the center, constructed of brick, iron and steel, with a roof entirely of glass. The shell of the building will support truss beams, giving a clear playing space in the interior of about 16,000 square feet, which will provide sufficient room for the infield. Screens will be arranged so that the direct rays of the sun will not penetrate the roof, while at the same time the effect will be that of an open field. It will be built on the alumni field between the new training house now under construction.

This modern baseball cage is only one of the many features of the athletic field, which has been under construction for several years, and it will cost about $25,000. Already something like $80,000 has been spent on grading the field of 59 acres, and when the plans are complete, the accommodations for college sport will be the best in the country.

It is expected that work on the lower tier of the stadium will be begun this year, and it will provide a seating capacity of about 3,000. The complete structure, having a seating capacity of 10,000, will not be as large as the Harvard stadium, but will be as imposing a structure. It will be in the shape of a flat arc, running alongside the football field, with Kite hill to the rear, and a fine vista before it, having the entire field within a range of all seats in the stand. The structure, completed, will cost something like $100,000.

The athletic field planned for Cornell is on a different and broader basis than usual. The whole area of 59 acres is to be devoted to use by the general student body and designed to fulfill their needs in connection with various sports.

Chalmers Pathfinder Here Selecting Route

Joe McButter, veteran race driver, and a number of others from Denver reached Colorado Springs yesterday on their pathfinder trip for the Chalmers consistency run from Denver to Canon City and return, which starts next Wednesday. McButter is the representative of the Chalmers company in the west and is driving his famous Bluebird car.

Up to date 35 cars are entered in the run. Rules of the trip permit a stop of two hours here both going and returning, with the reporting station at Marksheffel's garage on North Cascade avenue. From Colorado Springs the route will be over the new highway to Canon City where an automobile gymkana will be held Thursday afternoon. The races, which will be a part of the games, will be by amateurs only.

Next week's consistency run will be the third of its kind by the Chalmers people in Colorado. Accompanying McButter on the pathfinder trip are District Attorney Elliott, former Sheriff Nesbitt, A. K. Vickers, R. W. Means, E. R. Field, J. C. Cotton and Charles C. Collins.

Al Kaufman Now in Care of Tom Jones

NEW YORK, June 6.—Ascending gradually from the well of pugilistic obscurity is a young man with whom New Yorkers have been more or less acquainted in the past. This certain individual twice has had his championship aspirations dashed to earth, but he is tenacious as ever and before long he hopes to command the attention of fight lovers the country over.

Albert Kaufman, who for a time was looked upon as the most hopeful of "white hopes," is attempting the resurrection stunt.

The so-called reader, although you may have thought that Kaufman was a dead issue in the fight game after his knockout by Al Palmer, Kaufman has made his first move to regain the prestige he once enjoyed. He has selected Tom Jones, manager of Lightweight Champion Ad Wolgast, to pilot him to the crest of the heavyweight wave.

Kaufman believes that with Jones to handle him he will make a more determined bid for the heavyweight title than he did when guided by others less familiar with the intricacies of the fight game. Jones has shown his shrewdness as a manager by his sagacious dealings since taking Wolgast in tow.

Jones intends to guide Kaufman back into the spotlight of publicity by securing matches for him at with mediocre heavyweights on the coast. The "coming back" process will be tedious, but Jones says that is the only way he can hope to push Kaufman to the top.

Only after mature deliberation did Jones consent to handle Kaufman. Al represented to Jones that most of his trouble in the past was caused by a failure to train properly, a condition brought on by the overconfident state of mind when he accepted certain matches that turned out disastrously.

Vitt, who is making quite a hit in the Detroit outfield, was a star with the San Francisco team last season.

Presbyterian Athletes Hold Meet Tomorrow

As a windup track and field event of the season at Washington, the Presbyterian interclass contest is held for tomorrow afternoon, the program starting at 3 o'clock. The meet will be conducted on a large scale and, it is anticipated, will lead to additional athletic contests among teams made up entirely from Sunday school or church attendants.

There are more than 100 entries in tomorrow's meeting, and thus far there are 21 medals offered point winners. A silver loving cup, donated by Dr. W. H. Hougland, will be awarded the individual scoring the greatest number of points.

Entries will be divided into three classes, ages to govern, divided from 10 to 12 years, 12 to 15 and from 15 up. Physical Director Erps of the Y. M. C. A. will be in charge of the meet. The principal object is to interest boys in the work of their respective Sunday schools.

FLIES!

Broadly speaking, man has made the housefly. It has developed along with the human dwelling. It thrives because we afford it food, protection and breeding places. Just as we have made it, so we can unmake it. Protect food and refuse from flies, screen our houses, but first of all, abolish the places in which they breed.

SAY SEN. FLINN IS LEADER
McKinley Makes Charge That Alleged Plot Is at Instance of Colonel

CHICAGO, June 7.—Col. William F. Stone, sergeant-at-arms of the Republican national committee, tonight appeared to Mayor Harrison for police protection.

protection at tomorrow's sessions of the committee, which is conducting contest hearings at the coliseum.

Colonel Stokes' action he said, was prompted by reports that certain Roosevelt leaders intended to take steps to intimidate the membership of the committee in its deliberations.

Other members of the committee, including Col. Harry S. New of Indiana, Senator Crane of Massachusetts and Senator Newell Sanders of Tennessee, said they had heard the reports of a planned Roosevelt demonstration at the committee room during the hearings.

"There will be no 'rough house,'" said Colonel Stokes to the committee, "neither will there be any demonstration permitted on the outside of the coliseum. Drastic measures will be adopted if anything of the kind is attempted. I have asked the Chicago city authorities for police protection at the committee hearings."

Loath to Believe Reports.
Colonel New said he had heard reports of possible pending trouble, but was loath to believe them.
"Such a report as this," said Colonel

New. seems incredible. Certainly no one is foolish enough to believe anything can be gained for a cause by the adoption of such methods. And surely no one who knows the members of the national committee is going to believe they can be bluffed or terrorized by any mob or set of thugs that can be mustered.

And, I do not believe that anything of the sort will be attempted, as surely some one in the crowd has intellect enough to head anything of the sort. If any misguided individual should attempt it. However, depend upon it, that if anything of the kind is attempted, the individuals concerned will be severely punished.

This is supposed to be a national convention and not a prize ring or a beer garden and the dignity and good order of its proceedings will be enforced peaceably, we hope, but, if any one attempts to employ force of any kind, he will live to repent of their folly.

kind he will find his methods will be resisted with sufficient vigor to make the outcome very different from what had been intended."

Dixon Refuses to Discuss Report.
United States Senator Dixon, of Montana, Colonel Roosevelt's campaign manager, declined to discuss these reports when the matter was called to his attention. Senator Dixon said he might have some comment to make.

Congressman William B. McKinley, director of the National Taft bureau, specified William Flinn of Pittsburg, as the Roosevelt leader, who, he had been informed, was expected to visit the

Mr. McKinley also said he had received reliable information that George W. Perkins of New York had been called to Chicago by certain Roosevelt members of the national committee to head off any possible disturbance.

Senator Filen was expected to reach Chicago tonight. Senator Dixon said that if he could not return to Chicago, he would resign.

Statement From McKinley.

"Reliable information has been received, indicating that the sole purpose of the coming of William Flinn of Pittsburg to Chicago, at the instance to intimidate the Republican national committee if possible, in its deliberations on the contest of delegates beginning at the national convention.

It is understood that the plan which Mr. Flynn is expected to follow is to organize crowds of Roosevelt followers, who shall make demonstrations at the coliseum for the purpose of attempting to overawe the national committee.

"Roosevelt members of that body today deprecated the plan, and, it is said, appealed to George W. Perkins of New York, one of Mr. Roosevelt's most intimate friends, to put an end to it."

Mr Perkins had made no comment on this report up to tonight.
